

Remembering Philip Morgan, SPiRiT

and his contribution to African and Caribbean history in the London Borough of Tower Hamlets

Saturday 5th May 12 noon – 4 pm
Tower Hamlets Local History Library and Archives
277 Bancroft Rd, London E1 4DQ

Philip Morgan SPiRiT (13/01/65 – 6/05/17)

This event is organised by some of Philip Morgan's friends and supported by his family and the Tower Hamlets Local History Library and Archives. Come and join us in remembering a brother, friend, mentor and community activist.

Learn of his work with mental health survivor groups and in particular the 'Health Through History Initiative' which was designed to heal African and Caribbean people experiencing mental health challenges in the borough of Tower Hamlets

Be part of the Power Writers experience – an exhibition of five African writers who had connections with the area in the 18th century. This will be displayed during the month of May at the Archives. Listen to tributes and contribute to an afternoon of fun, education and reflection. This event is free, no booking required, browse the stalls and the displays. The first fifty people arriving will be given a free copy of the 2nd edition of the Power Writers book published by Hansib Publications.
